The Fine Print: Green Building Council expands

by Natalie Kostelni Staff Writer

The Delaware Valley Green Building Council has established a branch in Delaware.

Linda Schultz, a broker at Colliers Lanard & Axilbund, will serve as chairwoman, and Mark Purcell of Nason Construction will serve as vice president ...

Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads reupped its lease on 17,616 square feet at 457 Haddonfield Road in Cherry Hill. Wayne Fisher and Craig Scheuerle of Grubb & Ellis' Philadelphia office, as well as Joe Sklencar Sr. and Joe Sklencar Jr. of Grubb & Ellis' Marlton office arranged the lease. The building is owned by Brandywine Realty Trust (NYSE:BDN) ... Endurance Real Estate Group sold a portion of 121 High Hill Road, a two-building industrial complex in Woolwich, N.J., for $3.5 million to Diversified Foam of Pennsauken, N.J. The company will be relocating to the new facility. Jim Young and Harry McKenna of Jackson Cross Partners represented Endurance while Scott Mertz and Jon Klear of NAI Mertz represented the buyer. The sale was for one of the buildings, which was 107,570-square-feet. The complex totals 169,290 square feet. Endurance will continue to own the other 61,783-square-foot building ...

Bobby's Burger Palace will open this spring in 3,420 square feet on the first floor of the Radian, an apartment complex in the University City neighborhood of Philadelphia. The restaurant concept, which serves gourmet hamburgers, is the brainchild of Bobby Flay, a celebrity chef. Tim Duffy of Michael Salove Co. and Jordan Cohn of Northwest Atlantic Real Estate represented the tenant.
