Nancy Battagliese joined Jackson Cross Partners in August 2016 as a Lease Administration Specialist with the Advisory Services Group. Prior to joining Jackson Cross, Nancy had an extensive career providing various types of administrative support, human resources operations as well as office management in the non-profit and municipal government sectors. Nancy currently assists the Jackson Cross Advisory team in multiple capacities including data entry, data analysis and reporting, lease administration and property file abstracting.

An avid volunteer, Nancy enjoys spending time with her family and friends as well as participating in numerous missionary projects for her church.
