Elizabeth Killackey joined Jackson Cross in March 2018 as an attorney in the Advisory Division. Elizabeth's responsibilities include working in lease administration for a large international corporation with over 35,000 locations and several other international companies.

Prior to joining Jackson Cross, Elizabeth was an in-house attorney for US Mortgage Resolution and for computer game company eGames. Elizabeth started her career as an attorney in the Litigation Department of the prominent Center City law firm of Ballard Spahr. During law school, Elizabeth was a summer clerk for Judge James McGirr Kelly in federal court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Elizabeth graduated from Villanova University Law School and Swarthmore College. At Villanova, Elizabeth was an Executive Member of the Villanova Moot Court Board during which time she won the Dominik Gabrielli National Family Law Moot Court Competition. She also won the American Bar Association's Howard C. Schwab Memorial Award Essay Competition.

Elizabeth is admitted practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey.

In her community, Elizabeth has served on the Board of the Old Eagle School House, is a volunteer in the Tredyffrin-Easttown School District, has served on the Swarthmore College Alumni Council and volunteers in a number of other local organizations
